This week is the 3rd week of Lent, children have been reflecting on almsgiving as we continue to support our parish with the Harvest of Hope, please keep bringing in your contributions towards the foodbank to help families cope with the living crisis. Well done to year 5 this week, you represented our school very well, your behaviour was outstanding. Children enjoyed Film Night thank you, it's great to see the children enjoy their time with friends after school.

RED NOSE DAY / ODD SOCKS DAY Building Pupil Leadership

Well done to Chloe Jo for reminding us about Red Nose Day today, she has organised an extension on Monday please wear red and bring in your donations, The Theme for 2025 is to support those in need during the current living crisis focusing on issues such as lack of food and homelessness, this also supports our Catholic Social Teaching

Well done to Harlie for wearing odd socks today, reminding everyone to support children with Down's Syndrome, Harlie would like to organise this for Wednesday Please wear the funkiest odd socks you can!

Attendance

- CONGRATULATIONS to YOU! Well done to all our pupils and parents for reaching the highest attendance so far of (97.54%) above national average, thank you very much for your support.
- Next week children will be awarded for being an early bird on time at 8.45am all week. Their names will be entered into a prize draw in our achievement assembly.

Breakfast Club Notices

- School had a Health and Safety Audit last week and it has been suggested that a barrier is needed to stop children cutting across the car park.
- Children who may arrive on bikes, are to dismount and come through the small gate and avoid the car park. We cannot let children in before 8 am due to Mr Plumpton having to complete his morning duties around school. Thank you for your support.
- Please line up on the pavement, away from the entrance steps. Mr Plumpton will put up a temporary barrier to encourage children to keep off the carpark. Thank you for your support
