Draft Model Curriculum (EYFS)

Early Years Religious Education Curriculum

Teaching in the Early Years Foundation Stage is a specialism, needing careful planning and adaptations to ensure that every opportunity shared is a chance to learn and explore. The curriculum is holistic and teaching and learning weave into each area of learning.

Religious Education “...in accordance with the teachings, doctrines, discipline, general and particular norms of the Catholic Church” should be taught as a core subject, well-resourced and integrated clearly into other curriculum areas. “The special character of the Catholic school, the underlying reason for it, the reason why Catholic parents should prefer it, is precisely the quality of the religious instruction integrated into the education of the pupils.” (1)

1. Code of Canon Law, Christ at the Centre, p20 Mgr. Marcus Stock, 2012

The Religious Education Curriculum in the Early Years Foundation Stage aims to be at the heart of the curriculum and at the core of learning where appropriate. The curriculum will inform schemes of work and programmes of study to enable well written, quality holistic planning and resources for early learning. The curriculum for the Early Years follows each Branch as outlined in the Religious Education curriculum document and provides the adaptation of the statutory framework (1) to suit Early Years planning and teaching and learning.

It provides Religious Education within the Early Years areas of learning as a bespoke foundation for secure grounding for Key Stage 1 and beyond. The Religious Education Ways of Knowing provide evidence of children’s outcomes and development. At the end of the foundation stage, there are Religious Education Early Learning Goals. (2) Religious Education may at times flow into areas of Mathematics, such as Creation and Myself topics may include counting birthdays. However, the links may be tenuous, and the distinctive Religious Education aim may be lost.

The curriculum for early religious learning has been guided by the DfE’s Statutory framework for the early year’s foundation stage 2021 - Setting the standards for learning, development and care for children from birth to five

The Religious Education Curriculum Directory serves the Bishops of England and Wales, the Catholic Education Service, diocese’ and Catholic schools in revealing the Good News and making the little stories of children meet the big stories told by the disciples. Wonder at God's gifts inevitably flows into reflection and enjoyment of the gifts, into prayers of praise and thanksgiving. Through the curriculum, children learn about the story of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus through sacred texts, parables, sensory experiences, the symbols and gestures of the sacraments. The curriculum shares the importance of each individual’s gift and talents in producing, writing, using and learning. In responding to this encounter, children learn that dignity, loving friendships, responsibility, care for our world and its people, and peace are values they meet in Jesus, who calls everyone to live a life of love. All children can share the Gospel values and insights learned through Christian education.

Religious Educational programmes and schemes of work

Religious Educational programmes or schemes of work must include activities and experiences for children, as set out under each of the areas of learning.

Educational programmes or schemes of work should also contain:

Effective teaching and learning for Religious Education activities should involve playing, exploring, active learning, creating, thinking critically... and include where possible... (2)

wonder and awe - the Holy Spirit gives Catholics many gifts. One of those gifts is wonder and awe. Children are engaged when they experience moments of wonder and awe. Look at and comment on the astonishing things in nature and in everyday life. Experiences of even the smallest of wonders will enable children to welcome God’s presence and a sense of amazement.

Ways of Knowing in Early Years

The Religious Education Curriculum is enriched by Ways of Knowing and throughout the curriculum children will experience, be taught through and learn by understanding, discerning and responding. Children will be enabled to SEE-JUDGE-ACT. Early Years children will use the same process by using age-appropriate language.

What will I see and hear to help me understand?

How will I discover more?

What can I do now?

Ways of Knowing
Understand	Discern	Respond
See	Judge	Act
What will I see and hear to help me understand?	How will I discover more?	What can I do now?

Religious Education and the Early Learning Goals

The Religious Educational Early Learning Goals are guided by the Statutory Framework 2021. This is to ensure the aim of including Religious Education where appropriate is at the heart of learning.

How to access and use...

1. Religious Education is outlined in Branches and follows Hear, Believe, Celebrate and Live lenses.
2. Early Years areas of learning are infused where appropriate with Religious Education Ways of Knowing.
3. The colour coding in the areas of learning matches the Ways of Knowing. What will I see and hear to help me understand? How will I discover more? What can I do now?
4. When planning activities through the curriculum, or when using written programmes led by the curriculum, teachers should use the characteristics of effective teaching and learning for Religious Education activities. – wonder, awe, playing, exploring, active learning, creating and thinking critically.
5. Teachers can help children achieve Religious Education Ways of Knowing and learning goals by using the relevant skills through a range of activities. This will serve to provide further evidence for teachers in readiness for Key Stage One.
6. At the end of the academic year identify where the children are by using the RELG Religious Education Learning Goals. Schools may wish to incorporate the RELG outcomes within their online data processes. This will further inform teachers, parents, senior leaders and governors of the provision and progress of Religious Education within the Early Years.
