

Jesus Heals a Paralysed Man

Mark chapter 2 verses 1-12

If I were the paralysed man in the story, how would I have felt about being lowered down through a roof in front of Jesus and all those people?

The man's friends showed great faith and friendship in this story. How do I show my friends that I care about them?

Jesus didn't just heal the man; he also forgave him for anything bad he had done in the past. Why do you think it is important to be forgiven?
